

Getting Started

Now is the Time for You to Write a Children's Book

Were you one of those kids that loved to curl up with a good book? If so, you may have dreamed of writing a children's book of your own. It's a dream many people have. Yet very few do it.

Now is the time for you to take action and fulfill your dream.

Free up about two hours a day for seven weeks, and you can finish a marketable book for kids. We've used this method 30 times to write manuscripts that sold to major publishers, such as Random House, Simon & Schuster, and Gale Cengage. Some of our titles have even won contests and awards. You can use our plan to write a picture book, a chapter book, a reader, a middle grade nonfiction book, or a middle grade novel in seven weeks.
